

Charles O'Neil

Charles is passionate about gift planning and helping donors achieve their philanthropic goals. He was introduced to gift planning sometime prior to the last ice age, and currently is Director of Gift Planning at the QEII Health Sciences Centre Foundation in Halifax. Prior to that he operated O'Neil Planned Giving Services, a consulting firm assisting Maritime-based charitable organizations to establish and operate gift planning programs.

Charles is a strong advocate for the work of the CAGP. He considers it his “mother ship” in the sea of philanthropic organizations. Charles attended his first conference in 1995 and was honoured with the Friend of the CAGP award in 2013. He is a past chair of the Halifax Estate Planning Council.